

Stall Talk

September 2005

lib.virginia.edu/press/stalltalk

Up close

This September, the Harrison Institute for American History, Literature, and Culture will begin hosting Gallery Talks. The first talk on September 7th invites you to explore the mysteries of the 1524 map of Aztec capital city, Tenochtitlán. On the 26th get to know Walt Whitman a little better with a look at manuscripts and diaries by the bard himself. Both Gallery Talks start at 12:30 — meet in the main lobby of the Harrison Institute.

www.lib.virginia.edu/harrison/events.html

Looking Back

Catch a glimpse of yesteryear here at U.Va. A new exhibit in the Harrison Institute and Small Special Collections Library traces the history of Jefferson's academical village. Items on display include original drawings and historical images of the Rotunda and Lawn. The exhibit is open now through the fall semester in the first floor gallery in Special Collections.

Don't forget to check out other Library exhibits during the semester, including Brown Science and Engineering, Clemons, and the Harrison Institute/Small Special Collections Library.

www.lib.virginia.edu/librarynews.html

Need Help?

Get working

Not sure how to get started with your research? Why not ask a librarian? Call, email, IM, or, if you are a little more old-fashioned, come in and meet us face to face.

www.lib.virginia.edu/questions.html

Networking

ITC is providing walk-in support at two libraries throughout the semester. Bring in your laptop to set up wireless access or talk to a consultant about other computer and connectivity issues you may have.

Charles L. Brown Science and Engineering Library
Tuesdays and Thursdays, 1pm-4pm

Clemons Library
Mondays and Wednesdays, 1pm-4pm

*Claudette Colbert, born September 13, 1903.