

FACULTY SERVICES

The UVA Library supports research, teaching, and learning with inclusive and sustainable collections, services, and spaces. With several facilities on and around Grounds, you can access numerous centers and services, and consult with staff who are ready to assist you with your research and teaching needs. All locations are open for the fall 2023 semester, except for the main library, which is closed for a major renovation and will reopen in spring 2024. See locations and hours at library.virginia.edu/hours

The Library catalog, Virgo, is shared with the Darden, Health Sciences, and Law libraries. search.lib.virginia.edu/

GENERAL HELP

CONSULT WITH YOUR LIAISON

Liaison librarians connect you to all areas of the Library. Each department and many interdisciplinary programs have a liaison who provides direct support to you and your students and helps to shape Library collections and services. guides.lib.virginia.edu/liaisons

VISIT THE FACULTY WEB PAGE

Our faculty page provides links to Library services that are frequently used by faculty. library.virginia.edu/services/faculty/

SELF-GUIDED HELP

The “How Do I” page offers asynchronous, self-guided instructional material designed to acclimate users to the Library in support of research, teaching, and media creation. library.virginia.edu/services/learning

ASK A QUESTION — ANY QUESTION

In-person and virtual assistance are available all day and into the evening seven days a week. Follow the Ask a Librarian link on every Library web page. Ask us anything. library.virginia.edu/askalibrarian or email library@virginia.edu

COLLECTIONS & RESOURCES

SEARCH FOR AND CHECK OUT RESOURCES

Virgo, the Library’s online catalog, provides access to a vast array of resources, including online articles from our rich collection of subscription journals. Faculty can check out books indefinitely unless they are requested by another patron; other borrowing periods vary by resource. search.lib.virginia.edu

If we don’t have what you need, we’ll borrow from libraries worldwide. library.virginia.edu/services/ils/ill/
We also welcome purchase requests. library.virginia.edu/services/purchase-requests

HAVE LIBRARY MATERIALS DELIVERED TO YOU

The Library Express On-Grounds (LEO) service will deliver your requested resources to your department or in some cases to Library locations. library.virginia.edu/services/ils/leo

FIND, CREATE, AND USE OPEN EDUCATIONAL RESOURCES

Librarians will assist faculty in discovering, creating, and using free and affordable resources, offering guidance on open educational theories and practices. Additionally, the Library will provide technical support for the open publishing of learning materials. guides.lib.virginia.edu/oer

RESEARCH & TEACHING SUPPORT

IMPROVE STUDENT PERFORMANCE

Librarians are available to support you and your students throughout the teaching and learning process, familiarizing students with Library resources, spaces, and services; providing guidance on critical thinking and the research process; and helping navigate the landscape of scholarly writing and publishing. guides.lib.virginia.edu/TL/home

MEDIA PRODUCTION AND MAKER TECHNOLOGIES

The Robertson Media Center is a hub of high-tech equipment and studios that you and your students can use to create audio, video, 3D, and VR projects. Staff provide one-on-one consultations, equipment tutorials, and classroom support and instruction.

library.virginia.edu/rmc or email teachlearn@virginia.edu.

CONSULT WITH A DATA EXPERT

Research Data Services can help you find, manage and understand data and statistics. We offer help in performing statistical analysis and obtaining and troubleshooting statistical software. data.library.virginia.edu

CREATE DIGITAL SCHOLARSHIP

The Scholars' Lab and the Institute for Advanced Technology in the Humanities (IATH) provide a wide range of support and collaboration for computationally mediated research and scholarship in all fields, including both digital humanities grant programs and graduate fellowship programs. Staff have particular expertise in digital humanities, GIS, VR, maker, and cultural heritage approaches.

scholarslab.lib.virginia.edu and iath.virginia.edu

USE ARCHIVES AND RARE MATERIALS

The Albert and Shirley Small Special Collections Library, which holds more than 16 million objects including books, manuscripts, archives, maps, broadsides, photographs, and audio and video recordings, is available to faculty and students for research and teaching. Special Collections also hosts tours and class visits and offers expert research consultations.

library.virginia.edu/special-collections

The Digital Production Group (DPG) offers digitization services for the rare and unique holdings in Special Collections. dpg-orders.library.virginia.edu

SHARE YOUR WORK and MEET FUNDER/PUBLISHER REQUIREMENTS

Libra, the University's Open Access scholarly archive, is available for you and your students to deposit your scholarly work — articles, books, creative works, datasets, and other research materials. libra.virginia.edu

HOST AN OPEN ACCESS JOURNAL

Aperio is our open access publishing service dedicated to making high-quality journals, monographs, textbooks, and other online educational resources available immediately, for free, to anyone. aperio.press/site/publish

KNOW YOUR (COPY)RIGHTS

As an author, you have rights you can use to control (and to liberate) the things you create; as a scholar, a teacher, and a library user, you have rights to use the works of others. Learn more about when copyright is an issue and how to use your rights to advance your goals and support the broader community. copyright.library.virginia.edu

MAKE COURSE MATERIALS ACCESSIBLE

Instructional Scanning digitizes materials for instructional uses. library.virginia.edu/services/ils/iss

Reserves prioritizes digital items. We will purchase electronic materials whenever possible and will scan copyright-allowed portions of print materials when no other option is available. In some cases, physical books will be placed on reserve.

library.virginia.edu/services/course-reserves

Accessibility Services help you and your students gain access to Library resources. Recommended software is available online, and physical devices are available at library locations. For more information, contact Todd Burks at tcb2e@virginia.edu.

library.virginia.edu/services/accessibility-services

GET INTENSIVE HELP WITH RESEARCH AND TEACHING

Two programs provide intensive support for research and teaching. For Course Enrichment Grants, see: library.virginia.edu/services/faculty/enrichment-grants/; for Research Sprints, see: library.virginia.edu/services/faculty/research-sprints. Calls for proposals for both programs will be issued in November, 2023.